The Spirit of the Arts Performing Arts Festival for Catholic Schools and Colleges is once again set to be a remarkable celebration of artistic creativity and talent, with almost 18,300 students from 104 Catholic schools, including 9 regional schools, participating in this year's program.

This outstanding achievement is testament to not only the enthusiasm and talent of students, but to the dedication of teachers and parents who play such a pivotal role in supporting students to develop and nurture their creative gifts.

Pope Francis has always encouraged the arts in young people. His Holiness once said, "when truth and beauty are transmitted in art, it fills the heart with joy and hope."

This is undoubtedly evident throughout our festival, which is the embodiment of the Pope's intent.

As CEWA look forward to witnessing the many performances planned for this exciting festival, I acknowledge the Performing Arts Festival Committee and everyone involved in its planning, managing, and staging.

To all the performers, I trust all your hard work in preparing for the festival will be rewarded in your performances. I also hope the festival will be a fun and uplifting experience and hold wonderful memories.

Dr Debra Sayce
Executive Director, Catholic Education Western Australia
